

DINNER AT THE PANDA PALACE

www.stephaniecalmenson.com

Hospitality: To welcome visitors in a friendly and generous way.

"The theme of hospitality closes the story on a warm, satisfying note." -- Booklist

Mr. Panda says:

"No matter how many,
No matter how few,
There will always be room
At the Palace for you!"

Mr. Panda welcomes Mouse even when the restaurant is full.

He sets up a special table and serves her favorite food.

Ask children to share their own stories of hospitality.

- How do they make visitors to their home feel welcome?

Do they give a warm greeting at the door?

Do they offer a drink or snack?

Do they share books, games, or toys?

- How do they feel when others show hospitality to them?

For more teaching pages, please visit www.stephaniecalmenson.com