

DINNER AT THE PANDA PALACE

www.stephaniecalmenson.com

Vocabulary Page

Afar - far away (p. 15)

Awful - terrible (p. 7)

Ball -- a big, fancy dance party (p. 16)

Elegant - fine and first rate (p. 17)

Enormously - a very big amount (p. 4)

Graciously - in a polite and kind way

Highnesses - royalty, such as a king or a queen (p. 6)

Reservations - an agreement to hold something, such as a table at a restaurant, to be used later. (p. 11)

Splendid - wonderful (p. 10)

Ton - a very large weight; heavy (p. 4)

Task - job (p. 22)

Trunk - the long nose of an animal, such as an elephant. (p. 4)

Waddled - walked with short steps, swaying from side to side (p. 16)

Weighs - how heavy something is (p. 4)

Homonyms: Some words are spelled the same and sound the same, but have more than one meaning:

Trunk - Elephant has two kinds of trunks on page 4.
Can you point to each one?

Ball - On page 16, the penguins are coming from a ball.
Can you find another kind of ball on page 19?

